PODCASTS

Adventures Of The StarKeepers

A family-focused podcast that tells the story of an exciting adventure for your family to listen to while you're together whether in a car or at the dinner table. Through our podcast, we connect families to the topics taught each weekend in eKidz, and help parents have meaningful conversations with their kids. Recommended for children 5-10 years old.

Circle Round

"Circle Round" is a series of thoughtfully-selected folktales from around the world featuring top talent from the stage to screen. The stories are captivating and compelling and are nearly always accompanied by a positive message or moral. Recommended for preschool and younger elementary-aged children.

The Big Fib

In the era of fake news, kids need to learn to be able to tell what's true from what's false. And what better way to do that than The Big Fib — a game show that puts kids in the driver's seat, adults on the hot seat, and a sound-effects robot strapped to the roof. Recommended for younger tweens.
