

• TRADING CARDS •

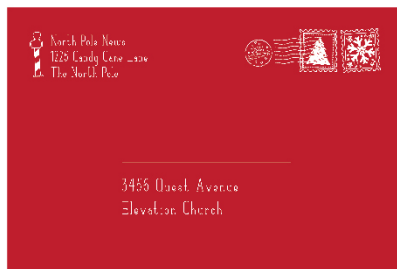

This month your child is working to collect the entire four-card set of Reindeer Radio Trading Cards.

Each weekend in December that your child attends Quest he or she will receive one trading card. Kids will have an opportunity during Quest to trade cards and try to collect a complete set.

Encourage your child to use their mail envelope from The North Pole to collect cards and bring it back to Quest each weekend.

Any child who collects a complete set and brings it back to Quest during a Christmas worship experience (December 21-24) will receive a special Christmas CD!

And don't forget about the special Rudy the Reindeer card! If your child receives the Rudy the Reindeer Trading Card, find Rudy at Elevation and get his signature. Bring the card back to Quest any weekend in December and receive a special reindeer treat!
