

ECCLESIASTES 4:9

Our memory verse during The Animal Adventurers teaches children working together as a team is better than working alone. During the last weekend of the series, September 27/28, children can recite our memory verse to earn an Animal Adventurers Troop 49 bandana.

Our memory verse is:

Two people (hold up two fingers)
are better than one. (hold up one finger)
They can help each other (two thumbs up)
in everything they do. (spread arms wide)

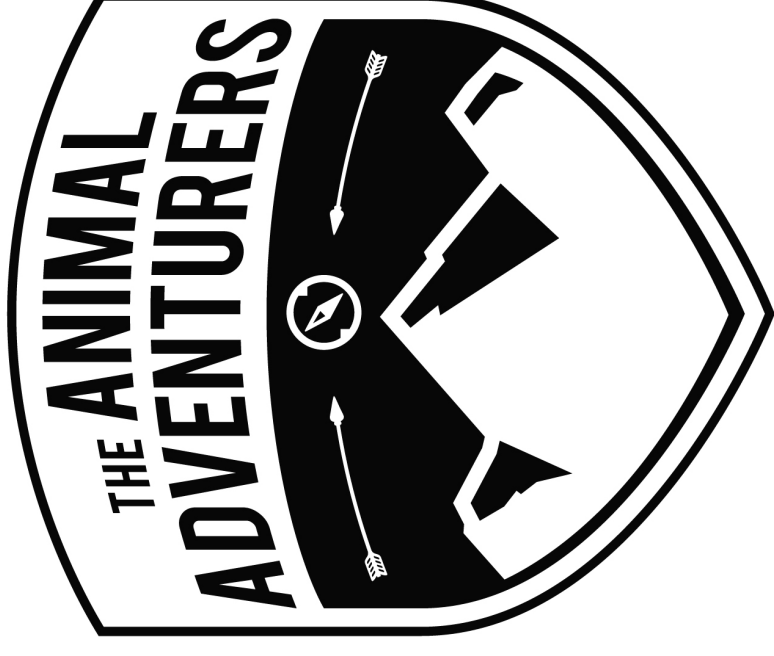

Ecclesiastes 4:9 (NIRV)

FAMILY MEMORY VERSE

ACTIVITY: VERSE VOICES

Practice saying the verse in different voices:

Robot Read

Say each phrase like a robot.

Eek! A Mouse

Say each phrase in a teeny, tiny, squeaky mouse voice!

Monsters Inc.

Say each phrase in your silliest monster voice!

Opera Singer

Sing each phrase like an opera singer!

Volcano Words

Start the verse in a whisper getting louder until you reach the end!

Pirates Speak

In your best pirate voice, add “aarrgh” after each phrase!

Your Royal Highness

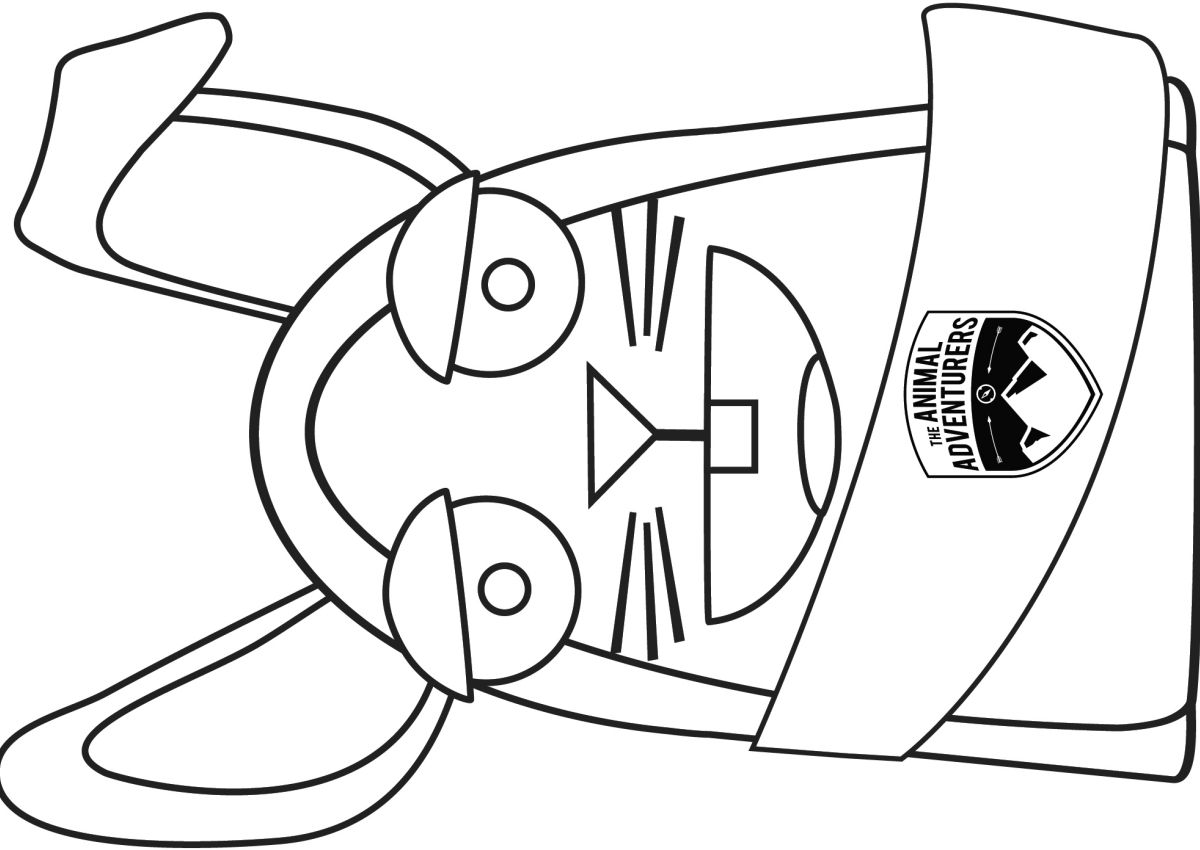

Say each phrase in your best British accent!

Baby Talk

Say each phrase in your littlest baby voice.

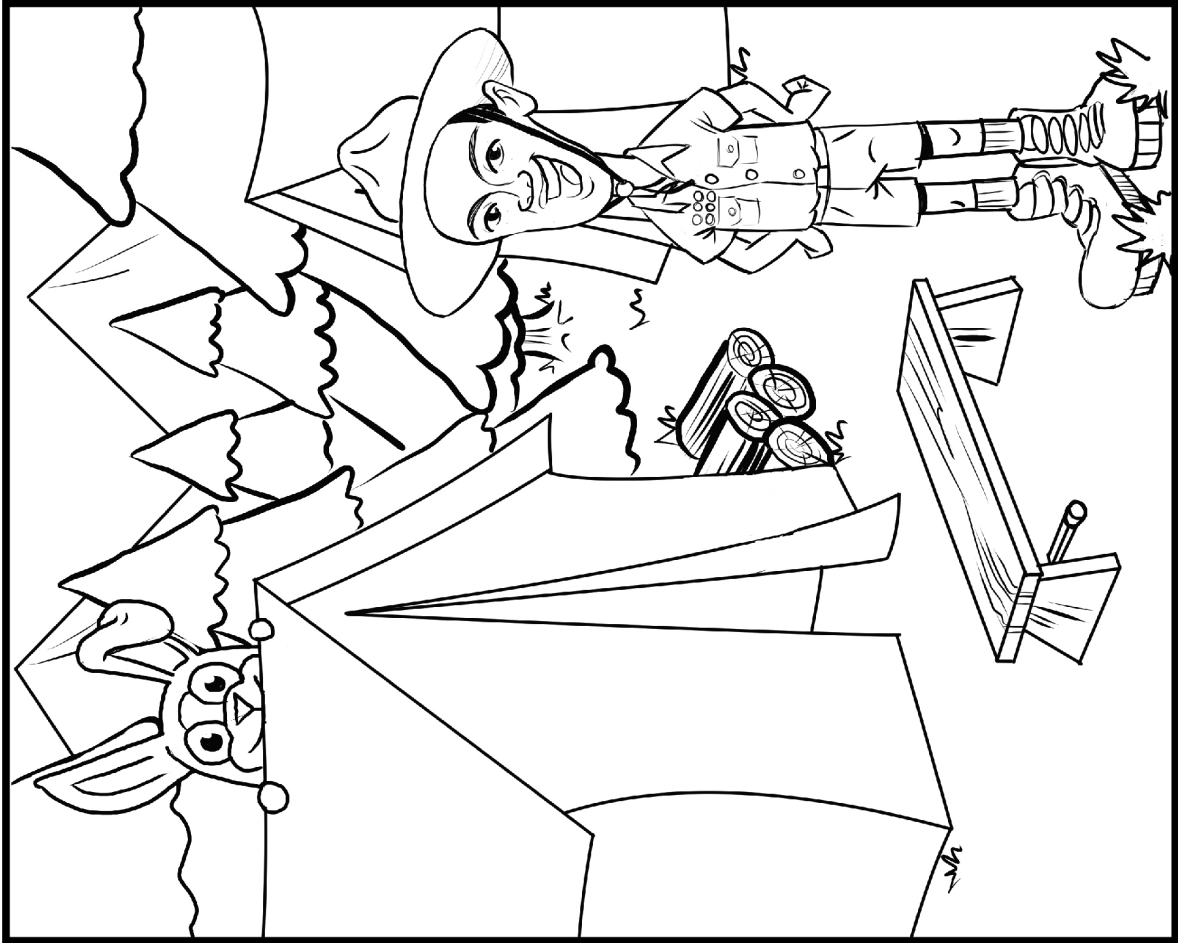

Choose one voice to say the verse in.

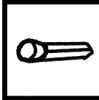

Continue practicing the verse using different voices or making up your own!

TALES FROM TROOP 49

Today in eGroup your child and their eGroup created a fun camp story. Create your own camp story as a family! Help your child fill in the words needed then read the story together.

While grabbing a _____ (noun) at the camp store,

I saw a wild _____(noun) perched in a tree. My friend, Pink Pig, said we should try to catch it so I quickly grabbed my _____ (noun) from my _____(adjective) backpack.

When I did, a _____ (noun) jumped out from behind a bush. Pink Pig and I chased it past the _____ (adjective) _____ (noun)

and by the _____ (noun), but as we were running,

we slipped on a _____ (noun) and fell on a _____(noun). The _____ (noun) got away, but it left us with a _____ (adjective) story to tell.
